Quote Request

Email request from Tammie, "We have a consultant that will start on 2/1. Could you order a laptop for him, please? This will most likely be a situation for just a few months. After that, we can always keep this laptop as a back up. The ones we have on hand are old. We will get back to you with end-user information and whether an email account is needed."

Personal Note from Richard Ozsvath

Hello Tammie - Attached is our quote for new laptop and complete configuration services for your new incoming consultant. Do I have your approval to proceed with the order? Thanks for the opportunity! - Rich
